

Middle Eastern American Authors Series

Helen Zughaib
February 16, 7–8 PM

Lebanese-born author and artist Helen Zughaib will talk about Stories My Father Told Me—in which her paintings accompany her father’s stories of growing up in Syria.

Nadia Hashimi
May 18, 7–8 PM

Author Nadia Hashimi will discuss her newest novel—Sparks Like Stars—described as a story of America and Afghanistan, tragedy and survival, reinvention and remembrance.

Hena Khan
March 16, 7–8 PM

Pakistani-American children’s author Hena Khan will discuss Amina’s Song, the sequel to Amina’s Voice.

Susan Muaddi Darrah
June 15, 7–8 PM

Muaddi Darrah will be discussing her short story collection, A Curious Land: Stories from Home, which won the 2014 AWP Grace Paley Prize for Short Fiction and a 2016 Arab American Book Award.

Rashin Kheiriyeh
April 20, 7–8 PM

Author/illustrator Rashin Kheiriyeh will discuss her stories and art about the childhood challenges of belonging to a new culture while respecting your own heritage.

Pauline Kaldas
July 20, 7–8 PM

Pauline Kaldas will be talking about her own collection of essays, Looking Both Ways, as well as her essay in The Penguin Book of Migration Literature about departure and return.

In partnership with Montgomery County Middle Eastern American Advisory Group (MEAAG), Office of Community Partner-ships. To register, please visit www.montgomerycountymd.gov/library and click on Virtual Events @ MCPL to select any program.

The series will be moderated by Debbie Trent, chair of the Middle Eastern American Advisory Group (MEAAG) and Karen Leggett, co-chair of the Maryland Friends of the Bibliotheca Alexandrina (Egypt).

